Few people have mastered both the Hindustani and Carnatic traditions of music. K Sridhar is one of them. Playing the complex Sarod, Sridhar has years of training and touring experience. He has made 11 recordings and has composed numerous soundtracks for films including the French film, Pondicherry: juste avant l'oubli, which received the prestigious Jean Vigo Award in 1988. Currently Sridhar is a recording artist for Peter Gabriel's RealWorld Records. In his latest recording for them, Arab Path To India, Sridhar explores the profound connection between Arabic and Indian musical roots.
